CENTRAL CALIFORNIA REGIONAL SERVICE COMMITTEE (CCRSC)

DIRECT DIGITAL DONATIONS PROPOSAL

1. Proposal Name: Direct Digital Donations (DDD) Campaign.

2. Proposal Maker: Santa Barbara Area Service Committee.

3. Proposal Intent: To give NA members a phone-based way to support NA World Services.

4. How: Place a QR code linked to NA.org/give on all NA literature, literature racks, & informational materials.

5. The Problem: NA's direct member contributions currently fund only 26% of NA World Services (NAWS). This leaves NAWS dependent on physical literature sales to fund the remaining 74%. In addition, younger NA members increasingly choose to access NA literature in free digital formats rather than paying for physical literature. It is likely that the vast majority of NA members have no idea NAWS has a global funding problem.

6. Solution:

   A. Awareness: NAWS needs better methods of educating NA members about the value and need to fund NAWS.

   B. Action: Once members are aware of the challenge, NAWS should provide a frictionless way to contribute from their mobile phones at the meeting. If members have to wait until they get home to log in to a computer, we anticipate a greater than 90% drop-off between awareness and action.

7. Proposal Description: The Santa Barbara Area Service Committee is asking the CCRSC to leverage its research resources and Regional Delegates to determine the most effective methods to develop a "Direct Digital Donation Persistent Messaging" proposal for submission to the next NA World Service Conference (WSC).

The following ideas are presented as a flexible starting point for the CCRSC to evaluate:

A. NA Literature: Place the NA.org/give QR code on every NAWS pamphlet and book currently sold through NAWS.

B. NA Literature Racks: Place the NA.org/give QR code on the front of every NA literature rack distributed to meetings going forward.

C. NA Member Support IP: Convert the existing 'Member Support Poster' into a standard Information Pamphlet (IP) approved by the NA fellowship. Place the NA.org/give QR code on the front cover. Include one free copy of this new IP with every meeting-level literature order through NAWS.

By putting a donation QR code directly on all our physical literature, racks, and informational materials, we solve both the awareness and action problems simultaneously. We create persistent, visible awareness of NAWS funding needs, and empower members with a frictionless way to donate from their phones.

Chair Report October 11th, 2026

First, thank you for travelling long distance to attend the CCRSC in-person. I know how taxing regional service can be, and I am committed to respecting our time and dedication to Central California NA.

Since our last in-person meeting on 07/19/2026, the CCRSC had two productive zoom meetings. To bring everyone up to date, here is a brief summary of the proposals we accepted by consensus:

1. In-Person Meetings: We decided to meet in-person every other month starting January 2027. This means we need to secure locations for January, March (Includes Regional Assembly), May, July, September, and November 2027. At today's meeting, I would like to build a contact list for each area willing to assist us in booking these locations, and to confirm the area rotation order.

2. Annual Inventory: We decided to conduct our CCRSC Annual Inventory each year at the in-person meeting in January. RCMs will distribute the CCRSC inventories to their groups each October and collect them each December. Because January also includes our elections, that meeting's agenda will be very full. I will do my best to keep us laser-focused during the January meeting.

3. Meeting Attendance: The RCMs approved a formal request that all subcommittee chairs or their representatives attend all RSC meetings, including those held on Zoom. This is in accordance with Article XII, Item 1 of our guidelines. We know your sub-committee schedules are very full, but having you at the table during our Zoom meetings ensures we work as one unified committee to best support the RCMs.

4. Web-Servant Position: We accepted a proposal to make the Web-Servant an Administrative Officer position as defined in ARTICLE V of CCRSC guidelines. We then formed an ad hoc committee tasked with establishing the qualifications and duties of the new position. Mariel B. posted the proposed updates to our Google group, and we will review them during old business.

5. Finally, as a new regional chair, I am still learning to work with consensus-based decisionmaking exactly as it is defined in ARTICLE XI: Section 3.0 of our guidelines. I have attached Section 3.0 to the back of this report and humbly request the opportunity to read it with you now. Reading it aloud will help hold me accountable and ensures we all follow the exact same process together in our business today.

Yours In Service,

David B (CCRSC Chair)

ARTICLE XI: Decision-Making

Section 3.0 Decision-Making Procedure

1. Upon presentation of a new proposal, the Chairperson asks if there is any objection.

a. If there is no objection, the Chairperson declares the proposal accepted by consensus of the Body. The Secretary records details in the meeting minutes and, where applicable, to the Log of Policy Actions.

b. If there is an objection, the Chairperson directs the proposal's maker to address the objection(s). This may include clarifying the intent and/or goal of the proposal.

The Chairperson asks again if there is any objection.

a. If there is no objection, the Chairperson declares the proposal accepted by consensus of the Body. The Secretary records details in the meeting minutes and, where applicable, to the Log of Policy Actions.

b. If there is still objection, the Chairperson shall open the floor for discussion to address members' concerns and explore options for compromise. Discussion may include up to six people for a maximum of four minutes each. Up to three people may speak supporting the proposal, and up to three people may speak opposing the proposal.

Each person speaks only once unless a member requests clarification.

After group discussion, the Chair asks if there is still any objection. If there is no objection, the Chairperson declares the proposal accepted by consensus of the Body. The Secretary records details in the meeting minutes and, where applicable, to the Log of Policy Actions.

If at least two members object, the Chair asks if those objecting can accept the conscience of the rest of the Body. If so, the Chairperson declares the proposal accepted by consensus of the Body. The Secretary records details in the meeting minutes and, where applicable, to the Log of Policy Actions. If not, the Chairperson tables the matter until the next regularly scheduled RSC meeting. RCMs then seek input from their respective ASCs to aid in reaching a future decision.
